Day 2 - Thursday, November 26, 2020

Depart the hotel early this morning to get a great spot for the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade.

- For those who like to rise early, folks are known to camp out starting at 6:00 AM along the west side of the street on Central Park West from 59th to 75th Streets near where the parade runs from 9:00 AM – 10:30 AM. If you prefer to arrive later, further down the route on 6th Avenue may be best—the Parade reaches this area around 9:30 AM. We don't suggest viewing from 6th Avenue between 34th and 38th Streets or in front of Macy's Herald Square, which provides very limited viewing due to the national television broadcast.
- For guests that are not interested in viewing the parade, this morning will be free for independent activities.

Meet back at the hotel in the early afternoon for a transfer to our Thanksgiving Day dinner cruise aboard the Spirit of New York. There will be a DJ and dance floor, games throughout this luxury Yacht, a rooftop deck with lounge furniture, and a delicious Thanksgiving Day dinner menu for guests to enjoy; all while taking in the magnificent views of the New York City skyline.

After the cruise, we will transfer back to the hotel via motor coach. The evening is then free to explore on your own. This might be a good night to take in another Broadway show, if you are so inclined.
